TO THE FRIENDS OF THE NAME OF BOSTWICK,

AND ALL CONNECTED WITH THE NAME.

HAVING a desire to perpetuate the memory of our revered ancestors, and a conviction that many of the sources of information would soon be closed, I have for several years past been interested as opportunity offered in gathering the following record.

Besides my personal knowledge, I am indebted to numerous individuals of whom I have made enquiry.

The information of the emigration to this country of John and Arthur, was first received through Col. Elisha Bostwick, late of New Milford, Conn., who says, "they settled at Stratford, then colony, now State of Connecticut, time not known. They came from Cheshire, Englaud, but were of Scotch extraction.

Farther information from Sylvester Judd, Esq., of Northampton, Mass., through the Hon. James Savage, states, that they were there before 1669.

From my brother, David Bostwick, of New Milford, I have authentic information that a younger brother named Zechariah came and settled with them.

The Hon. Charles Bostwick, of Bridport, says: "I find in the Stratford records, the names of John, Arthur, Zechariah and Benjamin Bostwick, who undoubtedly were of the first generation in this country. I find land conveyed to Arthur as early as 1668, to John 1677 and '78, and to Zechariah about the same time."

To the Hon. D. S. Boardman, of New Milford, Conn., I am also greatly obliged for his ready co-operation in the investigation undertaken. He has favored me with many facts respecting the first and second generations of the first John. He says: "I am inclined to believe that Arthur, the father of John, Arthur, and Zechariah, came from England with his sons. The Stratford records convince me of this. He bought land in 1668."

The foregoing account of our ancestors settling at Stratford, Conn., is corroborated by an old account book which I have now before me, kept by the first John. This book has been preserved in the family line, and is now owned by Rev. Samuel B. Bostwick, of Sandy Hill, N. Y. The following are extracts:

Reconed with John blackman march the 2d in the year 1687, and dew to me by ballance	£	s.	p.
Zackharia Ferris has had on me john bostwick twelf bushhils of corn.	0	12	0 moar for f pound of flax.	0	3	9

In this book are found the names of Zechariah, Benjamin, and Joseph Bostwick.

I have obtained accounts of the generations now living and on the stage, from numerous friends, who have shown a ready interest in the investigation, and have rendered their cheerful and prompt assistance.

In the numerous letters received, I have been struck with the similarity of hand writing and expression, as well as by the coincidence of names, in all these families throughout their generations. I am aware that there is much unsupplied in the following record, but submit it as it is, with the hope that it may prove of some use and interest, to the present and future descendants of the name.

ERASTUS BOSTWICK,

Aged 83 years, the third son of Jonathan, the first son of Bushnell, the first son of John, jr., the first son of John, who came from England.

HINESBURGH, Vermont, Dec. 10th, 1850.

A R T H U R ,

The second personage in our record, removed from Stratford, Conn., to Bedford, then colony, now State of New York; and of his descendants we had no authentic account, until 1833, when I addressed a letter to Ebenezer Bostwick, of Ohio, enquiring of him for the descendants of Arthur. He enclosed to me the following letter, written by Mr. Shadrach Bostwick, of Canfield, Ohio, containing evidence which is to my mind quite satisfactory :

CANFIELD, Ohio, October 10, 1833.

MR. EBENEZER BOSTWICK :

Sir—Since our pleasant though short interview this morning, and reviewing the interesting letter entrusted to my perusal relative to the genealogy of the Bostwick name, in addition to the narrative there exhibited, I am clearly confident that my family descended from the original Arthur Bostwick, brother of John and Zechariah, who came from England together. As his last residence and death-place was Bedford, N: Y., and as the interesting letter submitted to my inspection states that of his descendants there is no authentic account, perhaps the following sketch may be interesting to some of your enquiring friends upon this subject.

I recollect distinctly hearing a narrative recited by five brothers, one of whom was my father, just at the close of the Revolutionary war. It was the last time they ever met together, and was at my father's house, myself a small boy. Their names were: James, Shadrach, Saunders, Azariah, and John Bostwick. The four younger brothers solicited James, the eldest, not to return to England, where he had resided previous to the war, though a sea-faring man. He was about sailing, and seemed decided on the voyage. He sailed, was taken prisoner and put on board a prison-ship, at the moment peace was declared. But the part of the narrative I recollect most distinctly, was of the country whence they sprang. James argued that they were by nature allied to England, that two brothers emigrated from that kingdom, that one of them was the root whence they sprang, that their father's name was James. Now I think it highly probable that this

JAMES was the son of Arthur; and probably James had other brothers who came to Maryland, as I have found several in the South, whom I could not trace to my uncles, and yet who bore a resemblance to them in form and action.

3. My uncle JAMES never married, but died on ship-board, the ship lying in London Thames.

3. My uncle SAUNDERS lived and died in Kent county, Maryland. His mother's maiden name was Saunders. He left two sons and three daughters—

4. Henry,	Margaret,	Mary.
Eli,	Keziah,

Of these, Henry died unmarried.

4. Eli married a Miss Meritt, of Queenstown, and died leaving two daughters, who resided in Baltimore a short time since.

4. Margaret, Keziah and Mary all married while I was yet young. Mary married a celebrated gentleman and artist from Ireland, by the name of Watts.

3. My uncle SHADRACH married, settled, lived and died near Dover, Delaware. He left two children—

4. William,	Elizabeth.

3. AZARIAH, the fourth of the five brothers, was my father. He married Elizabeth Simcox, the daughter of a merchant from England. She (my mother) was of course much of a tory, though my father was as much on the other side of the question. They had six children—

4. James,	Shadrach,	Levi,
Selah,	William,	John.

Of these, James resides in Troy, near Cincinnati, Ohio. He has several sons, of whom I know only

5. Horatio,	Lloyd.

4. Selah, the second, died aged six years, by an operation of bronchotomy.

4. Shadrach, the third, (myself,) am now living in Canfield, Ohio, have two sons and two daughters—

5. Lovedyn Lee, Almira,
Charles Edward, Harriet.

4. William, the fourth, died aged 18 years.

4. Levi, the fifth, resides in Zanesville, Ohio; has several sons now living, two of them are—

5. Charles H., Samuel.

Charles H. occupies a glass factory near Zanesville, Ohio.

5. Samuel is an attorney at law, in Cadiz, near Cincinnati, Ohio.

4. John, the sixth child of Azariah, resided in Union Town, Penn.; had a number of sons, but I recollect none of the names except Lardner Bostwick.

3. My uncle JOHN removed with all his family to Canada West, just previous to the opening of the last war with England.

As to myself, though few have been my days, being just turned in my 64th year and many fatigues have been my portion in this life, yet few can stand riding better than myself. I am trying to live in readiness for death, though my constitution seems as yet unbroken.

If this sketch shall add any thing to the stock of information requested by your friends, or to your own, I shall feel gratified, while I subscribe myself

Yours, respectfully,

SHADRACH BOSTWICK.

The writer of the above letter was a clergyman of the Episcopal Methodist Church, and rode the circuit for many years. His early life was devoted to the ministry. Afterward, and until his death, he was a practitioner of medicine. He died of rheumatism in the chest, in the autumn of 1837.

NOTE.—It is quite probable that James, supposed in the foregoing record to be the son of Arthur, was his grandson, placing him (James) in the third generation instead of the second,
